PUBLIC LAW 601, 79TH CONGRESS

The legislation under which the House Committee on Un-American Activities operates is Public Law 601, 79th Congress [1946], chapter 753, 2d session, which provides:

*Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, * * **

PART 2—RULES OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

RULE X

SEC. 121. STANDING COMMITTEES

* * * * *

17. Committee on Un-American Activities, to consist of nine Members.

RULE XI

POWERS AND DUTIES OF COMMITTEES

* * * * *

(a) (1) Committee on Un-American Activities.

(A) Un-American activities.

(2) The Committee on Un-American Activities, as a whole or by subcommittee, is authorized to make from time to time investigations of (i) the extent, character, and objects of un-American propaganda activities in the United States, (ii) the diffusion within the United States of subversive and un-American propaganda that is instigated from foreign countries or of a domestic origin and attacks the principle of the form of government as guaranteed by our Constitution, and (iii) all other questions in relation thereto that would aid Congress in any necessary remedial legislation.

The Committee on Un-American Activities shall report to the House (or to the Clerk of the House if the House is not in session) the results of any such investigation, together with such recommendations as it deems advisable.

For the purpose of any such investigation, the Committee on Un-American Activities, or any subcommittee thereof, is authorized to sit and act at such times and places within the United States, whether or not the House is sitting, has recessed, or has adjourned, to hold such hearings, to require the attendance of such witnesses and the production of such books, papers, and documents, and to take such testimony, as it deems necessary. Subpenas may be issued under the signature of the chairman of the committee or any subcommittee, or by any member designated by any such chairman, and may be served by any person designated by any such chairman or member.

PRELIMINARY REPORT ON NEO-FASCIST AND HATE GROUPS

FOREWORD

Communism's present threat to the very survival of the United States and the rest of the free world has placed heavy burdens on the defenders of human freedom and dignity. The Committee on Un-American Activities is concerned to observe that this burden is being aggravated by certain individuals and organizations unscrupulously exploiting the menace of communism to promote other activities equally subversive and equally un-American. Such activities would destroy the very foundation work of the American Republic, if permitted to operate unnoticed or unchallenged.

Committee investigations disclose that this organized activity falls into two patterns:

(1) The neo-fascist¹ organization which openly espouses a fascist regime for the United States; and

(2) The organized hate group, which masquerades as a defender of our republican form of government yet conducts hate campaigns against racial and religious minorities in the infamous tradition of the fascist dictatorships.

Under Public Law 601 (79th Cong.), the committee is instructed to investigate and report on "the extent, character, and objects of un-American propaganda activities in the United States," and specifically the diffusion of "subversive and un-American propaganda" which "attacks the principle of the form of government as guaranteed by our Constitution."

Advocates of both fascism and communism are therefore of grave concern to the committee.

Both totalitarian doctrines are basically incompatible with the principles of our Republic. Both seek to destroy our constitutional government and supplant it with a godless dictatorship in which the individual is deprived of his rights and liberties to become an abject slave of the state. Both derive strength by dividing their opposition—communism choosing to set class against class, while facism incites racial and religious discord.²

Despite the similarities between communism and fascism—so dramatically demonstrated to the world during the infamous Hitler-Stalin pact of 1939-41—their propaganda to the effect that each is the foremost opponent of the other is undoubtedly a major contributor to whatever support each has been able to muster in our population.

² See exhibit 1, appendix, p. 20 for a more detailed comparison of the similarities between fascism and communism.

The Special Committee on Un-American Activities warned in 1940 that the danger to American democracy lay not so much in a possible frontal attack by Fascists and Communists in our midst, as in—the much greater chance that each extreme totalitarian group seeking by deception to advance its own cause and pad its ranks will succeed in convincing a really substantial number of people that their only defense against violence from the opposite extreme is to accept the violence of the one they find least objectionable.

This committee is agreed that subversion cannot be combated by subversion. Those who would support the extreme right today do as great a violence to our national institutions as do those on the extreme left. Furthermore, the appearance of neo-fascist organizations and methods in the postwar period serve only to impede the intelligent, united effort necessary in the current life and death struggle with communism.

The committee does not claim to have made an exhaustive investigation into all demagogic groups in the United States now exploiting religious and racial hatred. The committee's preliminary studies show, however, that such groups employ the Hitlerian technique of the "big lie" in their platforms and literature. Their vicious falsehoods are often clothed in seeming discussions of grave issues such as the Communist menace.

The hate group appeals to the unwary by a cynical use of concepts having a deep emotional appeal to the majority of decent citizens—love of God, country, home; or antipathy to communism. Amid protestations of patriotism and religious devotion, these groups propagate hoaxes and smears aimed at setting creed against creed and race against race. They use the divisive tactics of the Communists whom they allegedly deplore. Depending upon the type of audience to be reached, this propaganda is couched in language ranging from violent vituperation to subtle innuendoes.

The committee believes that, in its preliminary report, the Congress and the American public may best be alerted to this demagogic menace by the selection of two specific groups. One is an avowed neo-fascist organization, and the other is an allegedly patriotic organization which can best be characterized as a hate group. They represent the major methods of approach used today by the exploiters of racial and religious bigotry.

THE FASCIST PROBLEM IN THE PAST

The greatest activity by un-American propagandists of the extreme right occurred in the United States in the late 1930's, under the inspiration and often with the direct aid of Fascist and Nazi regimes abroad.

The first investigation conducted by the Special Committee on Un-American Activities after its creation in 1938 dealt with the German-American Bund. The special committee reported that the bund, which claimed 25,000 members in this country, including 5,000 storm troops, operated in fact as an agent of a foreign power. Special committee investigations also revealed the existence of hundreds of other fascist organizations ranging from groups openly advocating totalitarianism of the Hitler, Mussolini, or Imperialist Japanese variety, to groups posing as patriotic Americans but invariably marked by antiracial and pro-Nazi characteristics.

All of these organizations exploited racial and religious hatreds to enlist members and gain financial support. They frequently cooperated with each other in exchanging speakers and literature. Efforts at closer coordination failed, however, due to rivalries between the groups' petty "fuehrers" and jealousy over sources of income. It was discovered that many of the organizations were led by "racketeers" who operated primarily for the purpose of reaping financial profit from racial and religious "hate" propaganda. The special committee condemned such hate propaganda as "un-American per se," and as being particularly vicious in a period when it was a favorite weapon of the Axis Powers.

Unrelenting investigation and exposure, followed by legal prosecution prior to and during World War II, defeated the effort to organize fascism in the United States. The military defeat of the Axis wiped out any remaining hopes of the fascists. Even the hate-peddling racketeers were largely silenced in the face of an aroused public opinion.

NEO-FASCISM IN THE UNITED STATES

NATIONAL RENAISSANCE PARTY

The reappearance of the avowedly fascist organization on the American scene was marked by the formation in January 1949 of the National Renaissance Party, headed by a young fanatic, James H. Madole, of Beacon, N. Y.

The party's official organ, the four-page monthly National Renaissance Bulletin, is frankly billed as "the only Fascist publication in America."

"What Hitler accomplished in Europe, the National Renaissance Party shall yet accomplish in America," is Madole's fatuous boast in the issue of his Bulletin dated May 1953.

National Renaissance Party activities center on the dissemination of fascist propaganda through the Bulletin, other printed literature, and through street-corner oratory. The Bulletin has been published in Beacon, N. Y., where Madole's home at 224 East Main Street has served as national headquarters of the organization until the spring of 1954. At that time, Madole took up residence at 10 West 90th Street, New York City, and announced the new national headquarters address as Box 238, 208 East 86th Street, New York City. Street meetings have long been held at the corner of 88th Street and York Avenue in the Yorkville section of Manhattan. There, in seasonable weather, Madole may be seen haranguing some two dozen followers with a mixture of praises for Hitler and Mussolini and vituperation against minority groups. Hecklers at times swell the audience to almost 100 persons, and the meeting occasionally ends in a stone-throwing bout.

A serio-comic yet repugnant feature of this neo-fascist organization is its attempt to maintain a uniformed "elite guard" in the Nazi style. Madole is at times accompanied by a handful of young fanatics wearing dark caps and trousers and brassards on which a lightning bolt replaces the swastika. The elite guard takes an oath of unconditional obedience to the NRP leaders, whom it allegedly

ADOLF HITLER

20 APRIL 1889

International Jewish-Communism has always been a threat to Aryan Civilization and that Great German Statesman ADOLF HITLER was the FIRST to combat this deadly enemy before the world. What Adolf Hitler gave to the German Nation cannot be denied, What National Socialism bestowed upon the German people stands before the world as a monument to all of the Western World. No one can change the deep intense nationalistic feeling that Adolf Hitler taught them to feel toward the State. Nationalism is the only antidote to the poison of Jewish-World-Communism. The Western World will never forget the struggle of the N.S.D.A.P. in the early twenties, nor will they forget how foolish some of them were to oppose Adolf Hitler's New Order. Now we see that Only NATIONALISM CAN NEUTRALIZE AND DEFEAT JEWISH-INTERNATIONAL-COMMUNISM.!!

serves as honor guard as well as protector.³ The guard admittedly held secret meetings in New York City on Thursday evenings during 1953 under the joint command of Matt Koehl, Jr., and Hans Schmidt.

NATURE OF PROPAGANDA

The program and propaganda of the National Renaissance Party is virtually borrowed wholesale from the Fascist and Nazi dictators.

Its nine-point program advocates abolition of parliamentary government in the United States in favor of government by a "trained elite"; establishment of a Fascist corporate economy; encouragement of "racial" pride; preservation of the "white Aryan" race by gradual deportation of the "Porto [sic] Ricans, Negroes, Jews and Asiatics"; and the denial to Jewish people of citizenship, professional and political posts, and the right of "intermarriage."⁴

NRP propaganda contains extensive reshapes of Hitler's speeches. Typical are National Renaissance Bulletin articles, "Adolf Hitler Explains Nazi Anti-Semitism," appearing in the February 1953 issue, and "Adolf Hitler, the George Washington of Europe," which appeared in the issue of May 1953.⁵

NRP's own leaders imitate the Hitler line. Eustace Mullins, who has joined Madole in his street-corner propagandizing, is the contributor of an article entitled "Adolf Hitler: An Appreciation," in the Bulletin of October 1952.⁶ John M. Lundoff, Brooklyn chairman of the NRP, extolled the features of the Fascist corporate state in the April 1952 Bulletin and asked the youth of America to choose between "parliamentary democracy with its empty promises and discord or the clear, brave, and youthful Fascist principles outlined here." Chief source of propaganda for the NRP, however, is Frederick Charles F. Weiss, of Middletown, N. Y., who is portrayed as a graduate of the University of Heidelberg and the Sorbonne. His prolific writings in the Bulletin and in separate leaflets are mainly racist diatribes.

The NRP has also circulated literature received from Einar Aberg, of Norrviken, Sweden. For example, an anti-Semitic pamphlet by Aberg entitled "The War Criminals" was distributed in this country under the NRP's stamp. An "overseas office" is maintained by the NRP under the direction of Mana Truhill, of 54 Audubon Avenue, New York City.

Madole's group offers its fascist program as the "antidote" to communism. The falsity of its anti-Communist role is immediately exposed by NRP's insistence that a Communist is synonymous with "Jew." The NRP not only violates our constitutional principles by making this minority its target; it also frequently supports the position of the very Communists it allegedly opposes.

For example, the NRP accuses the United States Government, whether under Democratic or Republican control, of seeking to promote a new world war to "carry out the economic and political ambitions of a small coterie of international Wall Street bankers."⁷

TO ALL MEMBERS AND POTENTIAL HELPERS OF THE ELITE GUARD:

The uniformed Elite Guard of the National Renaissance Party was founded as a semi-military formation for the purpose of protecting indoor and outdoor meetings of the Party, providing an honor guard for Party Leaders and participating in uniformed parades and mass demonstrations.

Your motto is: "Loyalty, Service, Obedience".

Your enemies consist of International Jewry on the Left and International Finance on the Right. Both of these international forces seek to exploit the nation as a whole for their own selfish purposes.

As a member of the Elite Guard, the 9-point program of the National Renaissance Party must serve as your political Bible. Your individualism must be replaced by your duty and devotion to the national community. The Aryan Race, consisting of the ; Slavic, Nordic, Celtic, Latin, and Anglo/Saxon peoples must remain the dominant culture creating force in America if Western Civilization is to survive.

As Aryans be proud both of your RACE and NATION. Extreme individualism and internationalism enable JEW'S and others animated by selfish and anti-racial ideas to dominate the intellectual and political life of the nation. Just as extreme individualism must be subordinated to the welfare of the national community so must the interests of LABOR and MANAGEMENT be subordinated to the needs of the NATION as a unit.

Our RACE and our NATION must be of paramount importance to all members of the National Renaissance Party.

You may consider your enlistment in the Elite Guard as similar to an enlistment in a private army, whose sworn purpose is the establishment of an American regime based on the principles of RACIAL NATIONALISM and SOCIAL JUSTICE:

James H. Madole
JAMES H. MADOLE
National Director of the
National Renaissance Party

FIGHT JEWISH COMMUNISMAMERICA FOR AMERICANSAMERICA FIRST

This attack is identical with the propaganda line of the Communist Party, despite the different motives behind Communist and fascist attempts to disaffect Americans from their Government.

In a leaflet entitled, "Asiatic Barbarism Versus Western Civilization," Madole proclaimed that—

Only the superbly efficient totalitarian economic systems of Fascists, National Socialist, and Communist regimes are adaptable [sic] to the strain of TOTAL WAR as practiced in the 20th century * * * The spirit of democracy is a glorification of weakness and cowardly conduct. It glorifies the coward instead of the fighter, it raises feeble weaklings to leadership rather than a trained, iron-hard, and youthful elite * * *

At the time of the Prague trials in 1952 and other anti-Semitic purges behind the Iron Curtain, the NRP defended the action of the Soviet leadership and implied that the example should be followed in Europe and America.

Such an appeal to violence exposes the most vicious and dangerous aspect of the National Renaissance Party. In its printed literature, NRP has attempted to disguise such appeals, although the implications are clear in headlines such as the following:

In Russia They Execute Them the Prague and Beria Way! In U. S. A. They Promote Them the Dexter White Way!⁸

In his speeches, however, Madole has discarded caution on a number of occasions and boldly advocated "6 inches of steel" for America's Jewish minority.

NRP activities and propaganda are clearly subversive and un-American. The committee is further of the opinion that this neo-fascist organization, by its advocacy of force and violence, contravenes the Smith Act. The committee urges the Department of Justice to consider taking immediate steps to convene a Federal grand jury for the purpose of prosecuting the leaders of the National Renaissance Party under the act.

EXTENT OF NRP OPERATIONS

The National Renaissance Party has frequently appealed for support from crackpot elements which were active in bund and other fascist activities in the 1930's. Madole stated on one occasion that the NRP was formed to "carry on the work of the Christian Front."⁹ The Christian Front had cooperated with the German-American Bund in pre-Pearl Harbor days and bund leader Fritz Kuhn had declared the ideas of the two organizations were 100 percent in agreement.

Daniel Kurts, self-proclaimed leader of the Christian Front in Queens, N. Y., in 1939, became an active worker in the National Renaissance Party.

Another veteran propagandist, Kurt Mertig, became New York City chairman of the NRP, and his office at 317 East 54th Street, New York City, served as the NRP's city headquarters. From this same office, Mertig has operated as chairman of two of his own organizations—the Citizens Protective League and the German-American Republican League of Greater New York. Mertig's letterheads state the leagues were formed in 1936; the Attorney General cited both leagues as fascist organizations in 1948. Mertig himself served a

6-month workhouse term in 1946 on unlawful assembly charges growing out of his participation in a Christian Front rally in Queens, N. Y., in 1945.

In the summer of 1953, the NRP announced plans to run a candidate for Congress from the Yorkville district. Nothing further was heard of the scheme, however. The would-be candidate was H. Keith Thompson, Jr., who was identified in the National Renaissance Bulletin as a former registered agent for Maj. Gen. Otto Remer's Socialist Reich Party—a neo-Nazi group in West Germany now banned by the German Government.

The NRP had previously publicized Thompson as the national director of a newly formed American Committee for the Advancement of Western Culture. James Madole, Kurt Mertig, Frederick Charles F. Weiss, and other "officers and members" of the NRP also were represented on this committee, which had the grandiose role of serving as "a high policy planning group for the coordination of racial nationalist activities in America, Europe, Africa, and Asia."¹⁰

Last year, the NRP tried to extend its activities into other sections of the country.

A guest speaker at one of the NRP meetings in Yorkville on June 26, 1953, was one James R. White, who was billed as an "organizer" from Los Angeles. Madole claimed that White had "already organized a fully uniformed group in his city and distributed thousands of copies of National Renaissance Bulletins."¹¹ Committee inquiries disclose that James White's activities in Los Angeles have been confined to a small group and that no effective efforts in organizing the NRP in that city have materialized.

A youth in his early twenties, White was the publisher of his own newsletter, Reason, in 1952. Committee information shows that several years prior to his involvement in neo-fascist activities, White had been a member of the Spartacus Club of the American Youth for Democracy—a front organization of the Communist Party. It might be noted at this point that Mana Truhill, previously mentioned as head of the NRP overseas bureau, has admitted having attended the Communist-operated Jefferson School of Social Science in New York. This is another illustration of the common ground often reached by fascists on the extreme right and Communists on the extreme left.

Madole announced in his June 1953 Bulletin that a local NRP headquarters had also been set up at 2627 Hale Avenue in Louisville, Ky., under the leadership of J. W. Mitchell, a high-school student. Subsequent inquiry by the committee revealed that the branch in Louisville never attained any significant success and that it has since been dissolved.

In December 1953 the party's Bulletin stated that an NRP branch was being formed in Pennsylvania under the direction of E. R. Barron and Frederick Polzin, and that another branch was being created in New Jersey by Lawrence Sestito.

The numerical strength of an organization such as the NRP is difficult to measure. Such fanatics exaggerate their influence, and the committee would do no service in overestimating the importance of an element which will undoubtedly take pride in being publicized as a "menace." Membership of the NRP has been estimated at anywhere from 200 to 700 persons. All indications point to a diminished following in 1954.

The NRP charges a nominal $1 membership fee, and its monthly Bulletin, which has a $2 yearly subscription rate, is often distributed gratis.

The NRP has stated it held 22 street meetings in 1952, and regular Friday meetings during the seasonable weather in 1953, its most active year. The combined total of indoor and outdoor meetings of the NRP in 1952-53 has been estimated at 70.

A certain decline in the organization's activities was evidenced in 1954. Investigation reveals that the new headquarters address adopted by the NRP early this year is the address of a commercial firm. It is apparent that the NRP is largely a nomadic group, meeting in hotels and private homes, at times under the cover of another name, and using privately operated mail boxes as mailing addresses. Its Bulletin is being issued sporadically, and in mimeographed rather than in its usual printed form.

The committee is encouraged by the relatively restricted nature of National Renaissance Party influence. The committee believes, however, that such organizations have no place in the American scene and that the full force of exposure and prosecution must be employed to eradicate them.

THE HATE GROUP

"COMMON SENSE"

Growth of the hate group in recent years is exemplified by the publishing endeavors of Conde J. McGinley and his son, C. J. McGinley, in Union, N. J. The McGinleys, senior and junior, operate as the Christian Educational Association, for the purpose of publishing a semimonthly paper, Common Sense, as well as a mass of individual printed matter.

Common Sense represents itself as "the Nation's anti-Communist paper." Subscriptions are sought from "loyal and patriotic Americans" in order to "help save our Republic."

Such patriotic claims provide poor disguise, however, for some of the most vitriolic hate propaganda ever to come to the attention of the committee. Common Sense defines communism as "Judaism" and devotes its pages almost exclusively to attacks on the Jewish and to a lesser extent the Negro minorities in our Nation. Sympathy for the former Nazi regime in Germany also is injected into this propaganda, which is hardly distinguishable from that of the National Renaissance Party except for the latter's open appeal for a fascist government in the United States.

Despite its patriotic claims, Common Sense has in fact employed and/or carried the writings of a number of individuals associated with the National Renaissance Party. Through the columns of Common Sense and innumerable booklets printed and offered for sale, the McGinleys appear to serve as a clearinghouse for hate propagandists throughout the country. Among these are many of the native fascists and hate racketeers who were active in the 1930's.

In contrast to the limited appeal of the openly fascist National Renaissance Party, the McGinley enterprise appears to be a shrewd and going business.

THE ORGANIZATION OF "COMMON SENSE"

Conde J. McGinley, Sr., began editing a miniature weekly paper in Newark, N. J., in 1946, under the various titles of Think, The Think, and Think Weekly. In June 1947 the paper was issued under the name, Common Sense, and in November 1947 it was expanded to its present tabloid size and the headquarters transferred from Newark to Union, N. J. It became a semimonthly publication in 1948. McGinley remained the sole owner and publisher until early this year, when the so-called Christian Educational Association was created to serve as owner and publisher. Officers of the new association are Conde J. McGinley, Sr., president; Conde J. McGinley, Jr., secretary and treasurer; and Alex Jefimow, vice president. Jefimow is employed by the McGinleys in a subordinate capacity; only the McGinleys are authorized to handle association funds.

Headquarters of the newspaper and its publishing association are located in a 14-room stone building at 530 Chestnut Street in Union, N. J. The building is owned by Miss Katherine Littig, of Newark, N. J., who has worked for Common Sense on a voluntary basis almost from the inception of the publication.

The building also houses the press which prints Common Sense and other hate literature sold through Common Sense. This mechanical equipment is owned by the Union Patriotic Press, which gives the Chestnut Street building as its headquarters. A corporation resolution of the Union Patriotic Press lists its officers as president, Charles Kane, of Tampa, Fla.; secretary, John J. Reynolds; and treasurer, Edward J. Byrne, Hightstown, N. J., farmer. Byrne is known to have been a volunteer worker in the Common Sense enterprise. Both Byrne and Reynolds have attended rallies held by McGinley for his followers; Kane has also been in attendance prior to his removal to Florida.

McGinley was forced to rely on other presses prior to 1953 and he admittedly encountered difficulties in assuring continuous printing of his propaganda. After Common Sense moved into its headquarters on Chestnut Street in the spring of 1953, an addition was built for a press later acquired by the Union Patriotic Press. McGinley announced to his readers that the press had been set up "for our use" and would insure prompt service in the future. Technically, however, McGinley leases the press from the Union Patriotic Press for a $75 monthly rental.

NATURE OF PROPAGANDA

During 1946 and 1947, McGinley's allegedly anti-Communist publication gave little indication of its subsequent level of propaganda. At the outset, its columns carried a certain amount of factual information on communism. Beginning in 1948, however, Common Sense became increasingly outspoken in its statements of a pro-Nazi and anti-Semitic nature. It was soon almost exclusively a vehicle for the exploitation of ignorance, prejudice, and fear.

The paper devoted considerable space in 1948 to the support of the late Robert H. Best, American newsman who was convicted of treason and sentenced to life imprisonment in that year as a result of his broadcasts for the Nazis in World War II. A eulogy of Best appearing in Common Sense for December 15, 1952, described him as a "patriot," "Paul Revere," and "true Christian American."

An arrogant letter written by Herman Goering to Winston Churchill just before the Nazi leader poisoned himself, appeared in Common Sense for July 1, 1950. An editorial note recommended that the letter be "read carefully by Members of Congress and all others who are shaping the destiny of America."

Common Sense adopted the National Renaissance Party line which alleges the United States Government is plotting a new world war:

* * * Now that the matchless German army is destroyed, Germany laid in ruins, and Europe helpless, Eisenhower asks the German people to help him prepare for another war purporting to be a war against communism, while he protects and coddles in Washington the same people who prevented Germany from wiping out communism. This is to be a war against the Russian people—not communism. * * * ¹²

In this statement, McGinley's "anti-Communist" and "patriotic" publication apparently is not averse to serving the Communist propaganda cause. Indeed, McGinley has even printed such statements as the following, which he identified as being from a "European" correspondent:

* * * if your paper is to continue its excellent work of opposing the policy of the Jew, please do not fight Russia also, for we in Europe look upon it as the only hope to prevent Jewish world domination by means of its stupid, willing, technically clever American slaves, the destroyers of Europe's cities, the hatemongers of the vile occupation and the hangmen of Nurnberg.¹³

Anti-Semitism is the chief stock in trade of Common Sense, which now distortedly defines communism as "a false face for Judaism." Typical of headlines which appear in the publication are: "Jewish Leaders Are Crazy For Power;" "Zionists Threaten Russia With War;" "'Brotherhood'—Jew Trap For Christianity;" and "Invisible Government Rules Both Parties; Adlai and Ike Marxist Stooges." Articles in Common Sense have even attacked water fluoridation as a Red plot by "the invisible rulers" aimed at mass destruction of the American people.

The violent nature of this propaganda is illustrated by an article written by George Thomas Adams in the issue of Common Sense for December 1, 1952. In the course of a discussion of anti-Semitic pogroms in Communist countries, Adams stated:

* * * If the Russian people wish to throw off their Jewish yoke, what right have we to criticize them? * * * We should be doing the same.

Conde McGinley, Sr., uses the oblique method in an article in the issue dated June 15, 1952:

* * * The German Government, facing the same situation as the United States does today, put these Red Jews in concentration camps. * * * [Italics supplied].

A survey of Common Sense propaganda fails to reveal any outright advocacy of a fascist government for the United States. The solution customarily offered by Conde McGinley, Sr., to "save America" is an increase in the circulation of Common Sense. It is apparent that this publication represents a modern example of the racketeers who made a business out of un-American hate propaganda during the 1930's.

COOPERATION WITH OTHER PROPAGANDISTS

Information in the possession of the Committee reveals a significant interchangeability of propagandists working for the allegedly patriotic Common Sense and the avowedly fascist National Renaissance Party.

A good example is provided by Eustace Mullins, who frankly eulogizes Hitler in the pages of the National Renaissance Party's Bulletin and who has been observed at an NRP street session in New York City last year. Articles written by Mullins have been appearing in Common Sense since at least September 1951 and, last year, he became a writer on the staff of Common Sense.

W. Henry MacFarland, Jr., is another individual who has been simultaneously active in both the National Renaissance Party and Common Sense. A resident of Philadelphia, MacFarland in 1948 had organized a Nationalist Action League which was promptly cited as a fascist organization by the United States Attorney General. In 1949, MacFarland spoke at a number of meetings of the National Renaissance Party in New York. He presided at a branch meeting of the NRP held in Philadelphia in October 1949. Meanwhile, his name also appeared as "associate editor" of Common Sense in the issues which appeared during July and August of 1949.

At that time, Conde McGinley, Sr., was planning to combine forces with MacFarland and his cited Nationalist Action League, and with another organization, the Loyal American Group, headed by William J. O'Brien. The scheme, as announced in Common Sense, called for McGinley's publication to serve as official organ of the Nationalist Action League, with O'Brien disbanding his group to serve as national secretary of the new combination. The plan fell through, however, and McGinley resumed sole editorship of Common Sense. O'Brien, a printer from Montclair, N. J., was later taken on the staff of Common Sense.

The interlocking of Common Sense and the National Renaissance Party is further demonstrated by the fact that Common Sense has carried articles by Frederick Charles F. Weiss, chief propagandist for the NRP, and by Kurt Mertig, New York City chairman of the NRP.

Common Sense is also a channel for hate propaganda being issued by numerous other individuals and organizations scattered throughout the country. The literature of these fellow hatemongers is disseminated either through reprints in the columns of Common Sense or in booklets published and sold by Common Sense.

One of the most frequently reprinted "authors" is Robert H. Williams, of Santa Ana, Calif., who issues the Williams Intelligence Summary, a monthly newsletter. Common Sense also sells his writings in pamphlet form. Williams advertises himself as the possessor of vast intelligence information which he gained as a member of Army Intelligence during World War II. The deception is evident from the fact that Williams' intelligence duty comprised less than a year as an administrative officer for the intelligence section of a bomber wing. In this position, he would have received no intelligence information dealing with the Communist conspiracy. His assignment to the military intelligence was merely in the Reserves, from which commission he was relieved by official action of the Army, effective December 21, 1950.

Conde McGinley, Sr., has maintained a particularly cooperative relationship with two disseminators of anti-Semitic literature from Chicago: Mrs. Elizabeth Dilling and Mrs. Lyrl Clark Van Hyning. Mrs. Dilling's writings have been circulating since the 1930's. Mrs. Van Hyning is the head of an organization known as We, The Mothers, Mobilize For America, Inc., and is editor of the publication, Women's Voice.

Messages have been sent to Members of Congress over the joint signatures of Mrs. Dilling, Mrs. Van Hyning, and McGinley.¹⁴

Mrs. Dilling is a constant source of violent articles for Common Sense which prints them under such headlines as "‘Brotherhood’—Jew Trap for Christianity" and "World Crucifixion and the Master Race." Mrs. Dilling has also authored appeals in Common Sense for support of the propaganda activities of McGinley and Mrs. Van Hyning. McGinley in turn has recommended Mrs. Dilling's "Bulletins" to his readers and has offered for sale reprints of her book, The Plot Against Christianity. He has also appealed for financial contributions for Mrs. Van Hyning and occasionally carried in Common Sense statements either credited to her or to her publication, Women's Voice.

A number of individuals notorious for their efforts to create a nationwide fascist organization in the United States in the 1930's are also propagandizing again through Common Sense. McGinley has printed articles and letters from Gen. George Van Horn Moseley (Ret.), Col. Eugene N. Sanctuary, and Charles B. Hudson. He has advertised for sale a new book by Robert Edward Edmondson. The Special Committee on Un-American Activities reported in 1940 that General Moseley was being seriously considered as a national leader of an attempted union of fascist and hate groups in the United States until the plans were exposed and Moseley was called as a witness before the committee. The special committee named Sanctuary, Hudson, and Edmondson as being among the individuals who took part in this unsuccessful attempt to create a united fascist movement.

Preliminary committee investigations have thus far failed to reveal any indication that present-day fascist and hate groups are seeking national organizational unity.

The cooperative efforts of the hate groups, however, have actually extended to the point of national conventions. Common Sense reported the proceedings of one such convention held in Chicago, July 4-6, 1952. Conde McGinley, Sr., and William J. O'Brien spoke as representatives of Common Sense at this gathering, which was referred to by McGinley as an "annual convention" of "nationalists." Mrs. Lyrl Clark Van Hyning served as moderator of the convention, which was chaired by one George Foster. The 200 delegates, from all sections of the country, heard speeches and adopted resolutions following the lines of the propaganda which they issue. The most significant statement was in a speech by O'Brien of Common Sense. He urged the delegates to back each other "to the limit" whenever any one of them is "under attack."¹⁵

CIRCULATION AND FINANCES

Information available to the committee on the circulation and financial status of Common Sense indicates that Conde McGinley has developed a shrewd and flourishing business out of hate propaganda.

Common Sense reported in October 1948 that the number of copies which were distributed to paid subscribers during the preceding 12 months averaged 7,072. In October 1949 the average paid subscriptions were reported at 9,660, and by October 1950 the figure had jumped to 21,255. The committee has not observed any further publication of subscription figures in Common Sense since then. However, figures filed by the publication with United States postal authorities show that an average of 15,796 copies of Common Sense were being distributed through second-class mail to paid subscribers during the 6-month period from March 15 to September 15, 1954.

These figures do not reflect the thousands of copies of Common Sense which are sold by other means or distributed gratis. For example, McGinley has been known to make bulk deliveries of an issue to various individuals for remailing or distribution in other ways. McGinley asserted that he had "120,000 readers" in 1952. Committee investigation indicates that the circulation of Common Sense tops the 100,000 mark for certain issues, but averages approximately 50,000 copies. The number of free copies averages at least 30,000.

Subscriptions to Common Sense sell for $1 a year and provide a minimum of $15,000 annually, based on second-class mailing alone. On-the-side sale of books and pamphlets brings in an estimated maximum of $1,000 a year. However, the publication also receives financial contributions, the exact amount of which has not been ascertained.

McGinley solicits contributions in urgent messages printed in Common Sense as well as through special fund-raising letters. A typical letter sent out by McGinley in the spring of this year stated that, due to a low subscription rate and lack of advertising revenue, "We must depend on real patriots to subsidize us in keeping with their ability."

McGinley invariably represents himself in these appeals as a penniless patriot who has used up his life's savings of $15,000 on Common Sense yet continues to work "fulltime" without salary or profit in order to save his country. "When I am reminded of my duty, and it is not for myself," he has stated, "I take courage to warn you that if you do not get into this work personally and actively, or give money quickly to those who are active, the hidden invisible government plot will have proceeded so far that dictators will be giving orders." McGinley adds the sly reminder that money orders can be sent under fictitious names.

Such broad fund appeals appear with irregularity. They usually occur when McGinley requires large sums for a special project, such as the remodeling of his new headquarters building. Constant solicitations seem to be unnecessary as a result of very substantial financial support rendered McGinley by a few well-to-do patrons.

One of the financial "angels" behind Conde McGinley has been Benjamin Harrison Freedman, a retired toilet goods manufacturer of 960 Park Avenue, New York City.

Freedman estimated that he had spent $15,000 on Common Sense by December 1950, according to testimony he gave on December 12 of that year before the Senate Armed Services Committee. In a propaganda sheet published by Freedman in New York on January 2, 1951, he detailed his support of McGinley in this way:

* * * In 1948 Freedman met McGinley. They found that they had much in common. Freedman became interested in Common Sense as one of the most aggressive organizations fighting Marxism [communism] to which Freedman had lent financial assistance.

Since 1948 Freedman has given unsparingly of his time and his efforts to increase the circulation of Common Sense and has advanced a small fortune for that purpose. Within the past 2 months alone Freedman has advanced to and/or for Common Sense in excess of seven thousand dollars ($7,000.00).

Common Sense was rapidly becoming an important factor in the nationwide fight against the worldwide campaign of the Marxists [Communists] for world conquest. * * * Freedman advanced funds to McGinley to cover the cost of printing and mailing fifty-thousand (50,000) copies of Common Sense (No. 126) * * *

In addition to his financial contributions, Freedman is a prominent figure at various meetings held for supporters of Common Sense. He spoke as a "noted authority on Zionism" at a meeting held as recently as November 14 at Common Sense headquarters in Union, N. J. Common Sense advertised the meeting as a pro-America rally sponsored by Americans Against Communism—an organization name occasionally used by McGinley.

McGinley himself has not publicized such major financial support for fear of discouraging his smaller contributors. However, rumors that Freedman and others have been providing substantial aid to Common Sense have become widespread enough to force a recent public statement from McGinley.

In a fund-raising letter sent out in the fall of 1954, McGinley stated, "I have learned recently, that some people are under the impression that Mr. Ben Freedman and a prominent manufacturer are backing us." McGinley acknowledged in the letter that Freedman's assistance was "a help in making Common Sense the most widely read, factual publication on Marxism," and that Freedman today continues to "give all his time and is a tower of information." McGinley attempted to persuade his readers that nevertheless "for some time, Mr. Freedman has not been in a position to be of material financial assistance to us." With respect to the unidentified "manufacturer," McGinley also insisted that the contributions have been "nominal" although "very helpful."

The thriving nature of the Common Sense enterprise is attested to by McGinley himself on numerous occasions. He cannot avoid boasting of his accomplishments, even in the course of his urgent requests for funds.

He reported, for example, that in 1953 he had made "much progress." He referred to his excellent new headquarters which were extensively remodeled and enlarged; a press at his disposal for the first time; and the addition of an investigator and a writer to his staff.

A fund-raising letter issued this fall boasted that "we have now built Common Sense into a large operation to reach numbers." However, McGinley continued to announce ambitious plans, including the installation of new mailing equipment in his headquarters at a cost of $3,000. McGinley has also stated hopes of soon stepping up publication to a weekly basis.

McGinley's claim to full-time work in behalf of Common Sense without salary or profit is misleading in view of the facts developed in the committee's investigation. Volunteer workers perform many duties in connection with the publication. The committee has learned, however, that Conde McGinley, Sr., has no employment or income outside of the Common Sense operation. He has for a short period in the past served as caretaker of property in Union, but his payment did not exceed $1,000 a year. Conde McGinley, Jr., supplements his Common Sense activities by serving as a free lance salesman of aluminum windows and siding for houses. Conde McGinley, Sr., and Mr. and Mrs. Conde McGinley, Jr., reside in the headquarters building of Common Sense at 530 Chestnut Street in Union.

Since contributions form an admittedly important part of Common Sense income, the true state of its finances is difficult to determine. The committee has been denied access to Federal income tax information on the principals involved. A minimum income of approximately $30,000 annually is evident from a study of bank deposits made in the name of Common Sense or its new corporate cloak, the Christian Educational Association. A total of $25,965.97 was deposited in the publication's account in a Union, N. J., bank during the 10-month period from January 1 to October 29, 1954. During the 12 months of 1953, deposits totaled $29,320.78.

It is regrettable that any American may have contributed to the perpetuation of a hate factory such as that operated by the McGinleys. If loyal Americans seek to play an active part in protecting their country from subversion, they would do well to lend their support to legitimate patriotic organizations rather than to those whose real objective is another form of subversion.

CONCLUSION

In this preliminary report, the committee has concentrated on a few examples of subversive propaganda activity currently to be found in the United States. The committee is well aware that this report conveys only a small part of the total picture of such activities in this country today.

The committee believes, however, that this preliminary report will provide useful information to the Congress. Both the National Renaissance Party and Common Sense have made unsolicited distributions of their un-American propaganda to Members of the Congress, and the Members have consequently made frequent inquiry of the committee regarding the nature of these organizations.

The committee further hopes that this report will alert both the Congress and the American public to dangers which must not be ignored. The National Renaissance Party and the operators of Common Sense illustrate two types of subversion from the extreme right. The committee condemns any such resurgence of pro-fascist and hate activity.

The committee is continuing its investigation and exposure of Communist conspirators wherever they may be found. The committee is convinced, however, that there is a concurrent need for continuous investigation, exposure, and, where necessary, prosecution, to the end that no activity of a pro-fascist nature will ever be permitted to gain substantial stature or influence in the United States.

APPENDIX

Some of the many similarities between fascism and communism are outlined as follows in Fascism In Action, a documented study and analysis prepared by the Legislative Reference Service of the Library of Congress in 1947:

"1. The wiping out of all independent trade-unionism with the result that those trade-unions which are permitted, exist only under the tolerance of the totalitarian state, to serve as its servile adjuncts.

"2. The elimination of political parties except the ruling Nazi, Fascist, or Communist Party.

"3. The subordination of all economic and social life to the strict control of the ruling, single-party bureaucracy.

"4. The suppression of individual initiative, and the liquidation of the system of free enterprise, and a tendency toward government control of supercartels.

"5. The abolition of the right to freedom of speech, press, assembly, and religious worship.

"6. The reduction of wages and, in the case of communism, living standards.

"7. The use of slave labor on a vast scale and the establishment of concentration camps.

"8. The abolition of the right to trial by jury, habeas corpus, the right to independent defense counsel, and the innocence of the defendant until proven guilty.

"9. The glorification of a single Leader or Fuehrer or Duce, who is all-powerful and subject neither to criticism nor removal through the ballot.

"10. The utilization of a special form of social demagoguery—for example, incitement of race against race and class against class—the elimination of all opposition, and the concentration of power into the hands of the ruling dictatorship.

"11. The subordination of all economic and social life and the everyday needs of the population to the requirements of an expanding military machine seeking world conquest.

"12. The establishment of a system of Nation-wide espionage to which the entire population is subject.

"13. The severance of social, cultural, and economic contact between the people of the totalitarian state and those of other countries, through a rigorous press and radio censorship, travel restrictions, etc.

"14. The open disregard for the rights of other nations and the sanctity of treaties.

"15. The maintenance and encouragement of fifth columns abroad.

"16. The reduction of parliamentary bodies to a rubber-stamp status automatically approving all decisions of the one-party dictatorship and the omnipotent Leader."

The Program of The National Renaissance Party

JAMES H. MADOLE

During the past several months we have been asked by large numbers of people to explain exactly what principles the National Renaissance Party is fighting for, and how we differ from the programs of the orthodox Republican and Democratic Parties. This article is designed to answer all these questions.

To begin with, the National Renaissance Party believes in subordinating the interests of the individual citizen to the interests of the national community as a whole. The nation represents the totality of the American people; their hopes, their needs, and their ideals. . . and as such the welfare of the nation must always supercede the private interests of any race, class or individual. Whereas our doctrine of Racial Nationalism welds the nation into a united and compatible Iron Front based on the ancient ties of blood and race, the poisonous Jewish doctrines of Democracy, Liberalism and Communism seek to foment class warfare, disunity and revolution within the borders of all national states. Until the power of the Jew is crushed there can never be peace between, among, or within nations.

Secondly, we believe that the individual has only fulfilled his duty to the national community when he has founded a successful home and family. The healthy Christian concept of the home and family is the backbone of Western Civilization. A man who will not fight for his wife and family will certainly not fight for his native land either. Hence, just as individually healthy cells constitute a healthy human body; so do individually healthy family units insure a healthy, united and strong national community.

During the past century the White Race has undergone a steadily declining birth rate in contrast to the ever increasing fecundity of the colored herds in Africa and Asia. This situation is partly due to economic conditions in both America and Western Europe where the combination of inflationary prices, greedy industrialists and rapacious labor czars make it necessary for young married couples to remain in their jobs in order to eke out the barest existence. Naturally when both husband and wife are forced, through economic necessity, to spend their days working in offices and factories, the conditions are hardly suitable for raising even the most meagre sized family.

We believe that strong, healthy family units can be established by providing loans to newly married couples who have first passed a strict medical examination to insure that they are not suffering from any hereditary physical or mental disease which might prove detrimental to their progeny. The child must always be the paramount concern of the Racial Nationalist State since the national youth represents the seed bed of the rising generation from which shall arise the elite Aryan leadership of the NEW AMERICA. We can insure the propagation of a strong, virile race only by prohibiting racial intermarriage and by permitting only those who are physically and mentally sound to marry. The racial purity of a nation and its freedom from hereditary disease are just as closely related as body and soul. To restore the Christian home, marriage loans should be granted without interest, to be repaid to the State at the rate of 3 percent monthly so long as the wife is in paid employment, and at the rate of 1 percent thereafter. A reduction of 25 percent will be made from each marriage loan for every child that is born of the union. This will vastly increase the Aryan birth rate in America and open up many jobs now held by married women to unemployed men.

¶ Thus the National Renaissance Party is primarily concerned with the welfare of the national community as a whole and with the supreme task of the national community which is the protection and preservation of our most valuable Aryan racial elements. As opposed to this, the worthless Democratic and Republican Parties are solely concerned with the accumulation of gold and votes. The Republican Party serves the interests of International Finance, the Democratic Party serves International Jewry; but neither serves the interests of the American people as a whole. To clarify the issues we will outline the complete 9-point political, racial and economic program of the National Renaissance Party.

(1) To encourage racial nationalism among the peoples of Europe, Africa and Asia as an antidote to the spread of International Communism. We must disassociate American foreign policy from the decadent British and French colonial empires against which the entire land mass of Africa and Asia is in revolt. We must also repudiate the operetta-state of Israel unless we wish to drive the entire Middle East into the open arms of Soviet Russia in order that our political windbags in Washington may appease a howling pack of New York kikes, whose sole contributions to American culture have been syphilis and usury.

(2) To enforce a strict policy of racial segregation in America in order to preserve and advance the culturally dominant White Aryan Race which brought the cultural and social benefits of Western Civilization to our shores in 1492. (By the "Aryan Race" we refer to the Nordic, Celtic, Anglo-Saxon, Latin and Slavic peoples.)

(3) To bring about a gradual deportation of those racial elements which cannot be assimilated with the culturally predominant White Race. Laws must be passed to rigidly prohibit racial intermarriage. (Those racial elements which cannot be assimilated in an Aryan racial community are the Porto Ricans, Negroes, Jews and Asiatics.)

(4) The Jewish Race, which constitutes the motivating financial and intellectual force behind Communism, shall be deprived of their American citizenship and hence barred from all political and professional posts. Marriage between Jews and members of the dominant White Race shall be forbidden. (During the past 20 years the Jews have managed to obtain a tremendous hold on American politics, art, culture and commerce. No people on earth with a vestige of pride in itself and its national honor will tolerate such a domination of the KEY professions by members of a completely ALIEN race. At the same time, the Jews are a determining factor in those political parties which have sought to undermine the last vestiges of racial and national pride in America. The Jew constitutes an alien virus in our national blood stream and as such he must be purged from our cultural, economic and political life.)

(5) To bring about the withdrawal of the United States from the United Nations in order to prevent further exploitation of American resources and manpower by foreign parasites. (In regard to foreign trade, America must develop a policy of preserving the American market for the American farmer and manufacturer. America must "Buy American" and subsidize, if necessary, American scientific ingenuity toward the end of producing chemically many of those products which are not found here in America but upon which this nation is dependent.)

(6) The alliance of German scientific and military genius combined with American technology, mass production technique and manpower could dominate both the American and European continents. Therefore our foreign policy must have the three-fold objective of realizing a German-American alliance in Europe; a Moslem-American alliance in the Middle East; and a Japanese-American alliance in Asia.

(7) The creation of an American Corporate Economy wherein labor and management will be equally represented in an Economic Dept. of the Federal Government. All disputes will be settled by impartial labor tribunals. (Labor and management exist to serve the interests of the State, which represents the totality of the American people. Class warfare and inflationary prices create universal economic chaos hence prices and wages must be stabilized by the State in order to meet the needs of the American people as a whole.)

(8) The abolition of parliamentary government national-minded elite.

(9) The use of all educational facilities to imbue the American youth with an intense feeling of racial and national pride as a sure antidote to the international poison of World Communism.

"More than thirty years have now passed since in 1914 I made my modest contribution as a volunteer in the First World War, which was forced upon the Reich."

In these three decades I have been actuated solely by love and loyalty to my people. It is untrue that I, or anyone else in Germany, wanted the war in 1939. It was desired and instigated solely by those international statesmen who were either of Jewish descent or worked for Jewish interests. I have made too many offers for the control and limitation of armaments, which posterity will not for all time be able to disregard, for the responsibility for the outbreak of this war to be laid on me. I have further never wished that, after the fatal First World War, a second against England or against America, should break out. Centuries will pass away, but out of the ruins of our towns and monuments hatred will grow against those finally responsible for everything, international Jewry, and its helpers. I have also made it plain that, if the nations of Europe are again to be regarded as mere shares to be bought and sold by those international conspirators in money and finance, then that race, Jewry, which is the real criminal of this murderous struggle, will be saddled with the responsibility." Adolf Hitler's Last Political Testament—April 29, 1945.

ADOLF HITLER, THE GEORGE WASHINGTON OF EUROPE

James H. Madole

In May, 1945 the Jewish vultures plunged low over the prostrate ruins of Nazi Germany as hordes of Jewish bureaucrats from Washington looted for the cultural and military spoils of Central Europe. Beautiful cultural centers like Berlin, Cologne and Dresden had been reduced to smoking ash heaps, their civilian population converted into screaming human torches as a result of the phosphorus bombs dropped from the bombing squadrons of Jewry's American errand boys in Europe. Our Twentieth Century liberal democrats and apostles of brotherly love laughed when thousands of lovely German and Austrian girls were dragged from their mother's arms by lustful Red savages from the steppes of Asia and by panting Senegalese Negroes, hired as mercenaries by our French Allies. Captured German soldiers were used for homosexual purposes by these same Senegalese savages during the North African campaign. A wave of suicides, syphilis and illegitimate mulatto children swept Central Europe while the Jewish Occupational Officers led by Eisenhower gloated with the report of each new outrage.

In a final burst of savagery and hatred the Jews manipulated the legalized torture and murder of Germany's top military, political and economic leadership at the infamous Nuremberg Trials. This trumped up infamy will live in history as a black smirch on the records of American justice. Despite the inhuman hardships and cruelties inflicted upon them, the German people remained loyal to the memory of their heroic Chancellor, Adolf Hitler. Only a few cowards and traitors joined hands with Jewry's political puppet, Konrad Adenauer.

We have on record the last words of seven German soldiers hung at Landsberg Prison by the Jewish Occupational Authorities. They were guilty of two great crimes, love of country and racial pride. The young hero of the American Revolution, Nathan Hale, when captured by the British was offered his life in exchange for vital military information. His immortal reply was: "I regret that I have but one life to give for my country." Compare this statement with the final words of German soldier Werner Braune spoken at the foot of the gallows.

"Germans! Obedience and faithfulness to my supreme chief of state brought me under the gallows. I cannot regret my obedience. In place of being shot at the front by comrades, I deem it to be more honest to be killed at the gallows by the hands of the enemy. My love was devoted to my people. My struggle was for truth and justice. My last idea is Germany. My last greeting is for my brave wife, my children, my old parents, my beloved brother and all my relations and friends. My last prayer is: God, forgive my murderers."

Despite the horrors of rape, famine and legalized murder the German people dug out from the ruins and commenced the hard and arduous task of reconstruction. The militant Fascist spirit awaited only the exit of Allied occupational forces before taking the reins of powder from the feeble puppets of Western Democracy known as Konrad Adenauer in Germany and Alcide de Gasperi in Italy. To understand the revival of European Fascism in post-war Europe requires a basic understanding of the beauty and glory essentially inherent in Fascist philosophy as compared to the decadent democracy of Western Europe which serves as a media for the economic and political exploitation of the Gentile masses by the Jewish Race.

The two political titans of Twentieth Century Fascism were Benito Mussolini and Adolf Hitler. These two men created a political and economic philosophy which swept the mental shackles of Jewish Bolshevism from the minds of untold millions of European workers, intellectuals and shopkeepers. These two men created order out of chaos and prevented the final extinction of Western Civilization at the hands of a barbarian Asiatic horde led by the Jewish Commissars of the Kremlin. When his liberal critics referred to him as "a ruthless totalitarian dictator," Mussolini replied as follows:

"In what consists the Liberalism which today inspires all the enemies of Fascism? Does Liberalism stand for universal suffrage and such conceptions? Does it mean keeping Parliament permanently sitting so that it may continue to present the ignoble spectacle which has evoked general disgust? Does it, in the name of Liberty, allow the minority to destroy the freedom of the majority? Does it mean making way for those who declare their hostility to the State and who are working actively to destroy it? Is this Liberalism? Well, if this be Liberalism, it is a theory and practice of surrender and ruin. Liberty is not an end, it is a means. As a means it needs to be controlled and dominated. Here we come to the question of force!"

"I beg my friends the Liberals to tell me if ever in all history there was a Government which was based exclusively upon the consent of the people and which was ready to dispense altogether with the use of force. There has never been and never will be such a Government. The consent of the people is as mutable as the sands of the seashore. The consent of the people is never permanent. There never was a Government that made all the governed happy. And granted this fact, however far-seeing the Government may be, there must always be malcontents, how shall you prevent their feelings from growing and from becoming a danger to the State? You must have recourse to force."

"Now Fascism throws the noxious theories of so-called Liberalism upon the rubbish heap. The truth, manifest to all whose eyes are not blinded by dogmatism, is that men are tired of liberty. They have had an orgy of it. Liberty today is no longer the chaste and severe virgin for whom fought and died the soldiers of World War I. For the youths of today, intrepid, eager, stern, who envisage the dawn of a new era, there are words which exercise a more potent fascination and these words are: Order, Hierarchy, Discipline..."

The collapse of the Imperial German Army in 1918 was brought about by the great munitions strike fomented by Communist Jews in control of the well organized German Trade Union Movement. The most prominent of these Jewish leaders were Rosa Luxemburg and Kurt Eisner. These Jewish labor leaders, assisted by a host of "liberal" Jewish journalists and professional Red revolutionists, were seeking to create a Soviet Germany to act as a buffer state for Lenin's newly created Soviet Russia which had been established in 1917. The attempted Red Revolution in Germany failed due to the heroic efforts of Adolf Hitler and the National Socialist Party.

In September, 1928, Adolf Hitler spoke to his party leaders in Munich. The problems confronting Germany in 1928 were similar to the problems facing America in 1953. In order to save Germany from financial and moral collapse, Hitler postulated the following program:

"In the first place our people must be delivered from the hopeless confusion of international convictions and educated consciously and systematically to fanatical Nationalism . . . Second, in so far as we educate the people to fight against the delirium of democracy and bring it again to the recognition of the necessity of authority and leadership, we tear it away from the nonsense of parliamentarianism. Third, insofar as we deliver the people from the atmosphere of pitiable belief in possibilities which lie outside the bounds of one's own strength—such as the belief in reconciliation, understanding, world peace, the League Of Nations, and international solidarity—we destroy these ideas. There is only one right in the world and that right is one's own strength."

Thus Hitler explained to his people the futility of seeking international cooperation with those nations which were bent on exploring a defeated and occupied Reich. How could there be reconciliation and friendship with a French government whose troops occupied the key German industrial areas of the Saar Basin and Rhineland? Could there be international solidarity with an England who had jealously stripped Germany of her African colonies and overseas trade? Only strong nations can afford to bargain in the great game of power politics. Hence Hitler's primary goal was the creation of a strong, independent, self confident Germany.

The racial philosophy of the Nazi Movement was completely at variance with the doctrines of liberal democracy, which had emerged from the Red ghettos of Eastern Europe and the Masonic Lodges of France at the time of the bloody French Revolution. Liberal democracy was based on the mythical claims of racial, individual and economic equality laid down by such Jewish intellectuals as Adam Weishaupt, founder of the semi-mystical Illuminati Society and spiritual mentor of the French Revolution and Karl Marx, the author of the Red Bible, "Das Kapital, and founder of World Communism. This democratic doctrine of universal equality was used by its spiritual founders, the Jewish Race, to break down the racial and national pride of the culturally dominant Aryan Race. The Jew, like the Biblical serpent tempting Eve in the Garden Of Eden, seeks to lure the Aryan Race into polluting its pure blood and creative ingenuity by mixing sexually with Zulu Hottentots and Asiatic ancestor worshippers. Hitler spoke as follows concerning the National Socialist conception of race:

"National Socialism takes as the starting point of its views and its decisions neither the individual nor humanity. It puts consciously into the central point of its whole thinking the Race. This Race is for us a blood-conditioned entity in which we see the God-willed building stone of human society. The individual is transitory, the Race is permanent. If the Liberal viewpoint in its deification of the single individual must lead to the destruction of the racial community, National Socialism, on the other hand, desires to safeguard the Race, if necessary even at the expense of the individual. It is essential that the individual should slowly come to realize that his own ego is unimportant when compared with the existence of the whole people . . . Above all we must realize that the freedom of the mind and will of a whole nation are to be valued more highly than the individual's freedom of mind and will."

The National Socialist Party took power in 1933 and inaugurated the most rapid economic recovery program in European history. Vast public housing and road building projects were undertaken successfully. American soldiers returning from occupied Germany have remarked about the high standard of living and cleanliness prevalent in German towns and cities under the Hitler regime. How was it possible for the Nazi Party to raise Germany from the depths of financial ruin to the heights of economic prosperity in three short years? This problem was solved by substituting the productive capacity of the German worker for the Capitalist inspired Gold Standard. Hitler explained it to the German workers of Berlin on December 10, 1940, as follows:

"The German capacity for work is our gold and our capital, and with this gold I can compete successfully with any power in the world . . . My whole economic system has been built upon the conception of work. We have solved our problems while, amazingly enough, the capitalist countries and their currencies have suffered bankruptcy. Sterling can find no market today . . . But our Reichsmark, which is backed by no gold, has remained stable. Why? It has no gold cover, it is backed by you and your work . . . German currency, with no gold coverage, is worth more today than gold itself. It signifies unceasing production."

"Work alone can create new work; money ~~can~~^{not} create work. Work alone creates values, values with which to reward those who work. The work of one man makes it possible for another to live and continue to work. And when we have mobilized the working capacity of our people to its utmost, each individual worker will receive more and more of the world's goods."

The success of the Nazi regime in substituting a goods standard for the gold standard threatened the security of international finance throughout the civilized world. The golden shackles, forged originally by the Jewish Rothschild financial empire, which had held the world in bondage for generations were seriously weakened. This fact combined with Hitler's world wide exposure of the Jewish Race as the motivating financial and intellectual force behind World Communism spelled the final doom of Nazi Germany. The press radio and cinema of every nation in Europe and the Americas were geared to an unceasing campaign of vilification and hatred against Nazi Germany. All German goods and shipping was boycotted by order of the Jewish millionaire, Samuel Untermyer, president of the World Jewish Economic Federation. Although the World Almanac attests to the fact that fewer than 600,000 Jews ever lived in Germany, the Jews persisted in their monstrous lie that Nazi Germany had cremated six million of their co-racials. This lie was used as a basis for the most fiendish persecution of the German people. That Hitler and his regime were loved and honored by the German people is proven by the fact that it took the combined manpower and resources of the entire world five long years to defeat sixty million Germans!

Hitler's last words to his people before committing suicide were:

"After six years of war, which in spite of all setbacks will go down in history as the most glorious and valiant demonstration of a nation's life purpose, I cannot forsake the city which is the capital of the Reich . . . I have decided, therefore, to remain in Berlin and there of my own free will to choose death at the moment when I believe the position of Fuehrer and Chancellor can no longer be held."

"I die with a happy heart aware of the immeasurable deeds of our soldiers at the front. From the sacrifice of our soldiers and from my own unity with them unto death will spring up in the history of Germany the seed of a radiant renaissance of the National Socialist movement and thus of the realization of a true community of nations."

Although Adolf Hitler is dead, his philosophy lives again in the growing strength of Fascist forces in America, Europe and the Middle East. What Hitler accomplished in Europe, the National Renaissance Party shall yet accomplish in America.

Eventually America must admit her debt to Adolf Hitler for it was Hitler who first called upon all Aryan people to unite and challenge Jewish economic and political power. It was Hitler who first enunciated the doctrine of national self-determination and led the armies of Christian Europe in a great crusade against the godless Jews of the Kremlin. Hitler, like Christ before him, was crucified on a Cross Of Gold through the duplicity of his own Christian people.

America will never forget that the Jewish International bankers, together with Franklin D. Roosevelt, their tool, led us into World War II. Why? Because Hitler drove the economic leeches of the Rothschild and Warburg families out of Germany. The Jewish "refugees" poured into America and enlisted us as their cannon fodder and errand boys in Europe. Hitler warned America in 1945, that we would have to face the ultimate battle against the Jewish Frankenstein Monster of Communism alone. America had helped create the monster, now it would destroy her.

It is no longer a question of defending America's independence. It is a question of defending the remainder of Western Civilization from the colored hordes of Asia and Africa led by Jewish Commissars toward the ultimate goal of Jewish World Domination. The Jew plays for high stakes, world domination or the extermination of their race. America is the last obstacle in the path of Jewish conquest. Either the Aryan or the Jew must yield in the world struggle. The goal of our National Renaissance Movement becomes clear.

Ever since April, 1952, the National Renaissance Party has been holding mass outdoor meetings on a weekly basis. From 70 to 200 people have attended each meeting, the greatest outdoor Nationalist demonstration since Charles Lindbergh, Joe McWilliams and Father Coughlin ceased operations in 1942. Next year we shall extend our outdoor mass rallies into Queens and Brooklyn.

BROTHERHOOD?

THEM THE PRAGUE AND BERIA WAY!

Fellow American, ask your Senator and Congressman for a list of those who under examination by our various committees refused to state whether or not they ever belonged to a Communist organization. You then, will readily find that of these 1873 "Amendment Reds", no less than 93% belong to those "Brotherhood" and One World apostles who at any time will sell us down the river — lock, atack, and barrel; to those brethren of ours who will sell us out because these aliens in our midst — in the realm of their cult enjoy quite a unique privilege — the privilege, namely, to have God, himself, as their lawmaker! (Compare Pentateuch, especially Part 3 and Part 5)

IN U. S. A.
THEY PROMOTE
THEM THE
DEXTER - WHITE
WAY!

Do you comprehend now, why every effort is being made by our "Republican" administration to do away with the McCarthy and Jenner "Inquisition"? A sentry found asleep at his post, before the enemy, is EXECUTED, even if no spy has sneaked past. Shall we, now, execute Messrs. Truman, Acheson, Morgenthau et al, who — asleep at their posts of trust — promoted, aided, recommended and praised these spies bent on our destruction? Certainly not! We, again, will elect them to their posts in 1956!

A year ago we wrote in our December 1952 Bulletin:

"... It is simple to catch Jewish leaders in a maze of contradictions during these times when they are frantically beginning to realize that their atomic weapons ultimatum, their United Nations front against Russia and the Korean War are gigantic blunders which may seal the final doom of World Jewry and bring an end to their vicious intrigues both in America and Russia. Up to now the Jewish objective within Russia has been to replace the pan-Slavic Stalin regime, which the Jews consider as having deviated from the international principles of Karl Marx, by a new Jewish dictator of the Trotsky (Bronstein) type. (In all probability Beria is designated by the Baruchs to fill Trotsky's place in the near future). Just as they constantly hoped for an internal revolution in Germany, so they have hoped for a revolution against Stalin, a revolution which would sweep away the old Czarist dream of a pan-Slavic Russian Empire with Nationalist tendencies and return to the fundamental theme of world Jewish domination over the Gentile masses as envisioned in Talmudic prophecy. This revolution against pan-Slavic Stalinism would embolden the United Nations and bring about the proverbial Jewish millennium, the reunion of Baruch and Beria of Lippmann and Ehrenburg, of Buttenwieser and Eisner, of Ana Pauker and Ana Rosenberg. But now, this hope has vanished. It is possible to record the developments which have been rendered inevitable by the clear break signified by the Prague Trials..."

"... The Prague Trials have gone off with an explosive roar to waken the European Fascist elite to active resistance against the death plans being hatched for European Culture in Washington by American Jewry. The fact is: the Russian leadership is killing Jews for treason to Russia, for service to the Jewish entity. Nothing can gainsay, or reverse this fact. The European elite will perforce note this fact and act accordingly..."

"... An inevitable development of the Prague Trials is the intensification of the American diplomatic offensive against Russia, the "cold war." The press campaign will intensify both in America and Europe; Russia will appear morally blacker and blacker; the American armament drive will be accelerated; all potential Soviet agents will be liquidated. Russia will naturally retaliate: today "Pravda" says "Zionism is a tool of American imperialism." Tomorrow it will say "American imperialism is the tool of Zionism."

And now, gentle reader, compare with these statements of ours the events over the last twelve months, now, that Trotsky the second — Beria, that is — has been executed.

Ever since 1945 we demanded the resurrection — with our help — of a powerful German Fourth Reich within the frame of a Federated Europe. BUT, the planned E.D.C. instrument — a "Babylonisches Durcheinander" without parallel in history — will end in disaster. For the Jewish consensus, however, it will be THE instrument par excellence to bring into reality the Jewish Imperium.

MAY GOD AND THE TRUTH INSPIRE CONGRESS TO SAVE AMERICA

BARNEY BARUCH was never elected by the American people to any position - not even as doocatcher.

BARUCH is the "elder SPOKESMAN" for a ZIONIST WORLD EMPIRE and nullification of American sovereignty.

If BARUCH'S warmongering for, and American regimentation during, World War I, was not conspiratorial, it was a murderous failure which deprived millions of "democracy".

If BARUCH'S Atomic Energy Commission was not a conspiratorial choice, World War I, it was a traitorous failure. America's atomic secrets were given to our enemies by masses of planted, unimpeded SPIES.

BARUCH - whose orders you are supposed to respect - spent $10,000 to bring home the Communist Party's church-burners and clergy-torturers from Christian Spain.

One of these beneficiaries of BARUCH was Israel Regenstein alias JOHN GATES (TIME, 1239), the convicted editor of the Communist Party's Daily Worker.

NOW

American blood is being shed in an unauthorized "police action" in Korea, to also bleed white this most Christianized Asiatic country, prevent their independence, then turn in the long American-trained Chinese troops from Formosa to subjugate Korea and China under another Zionist-run dictatorship.

WITHIN SIXTY DAYS WAR?

A quick war, with or without the consent of CONGRESS, is reportedly planned within 60 days. The Zionists are now ready to supplant their Soviet brethren. There is no difference between Palestinian Socialism and Russian Socialism. Palestine is solidly MARXIST in leadership, its political parties, in rule, aim, and objective.

BARUCH'S only authority is his own bold arrogance, his conviction that altho he has advanced America into mass death and astronomical debt A-GAIN and A-GAIN and A-GAIN, that you will kneel to his will and sacrifice your country!

In the name of God and Justice to the American people DO NOT SET UP BARUCH'S MOBILIZATION ORDER to regiment men, women and their YOUNG to serve and die in another PLANNED UNITED NATIONS WAR!

WRITE! WIRE!

PROTEST TO YOUR REPRESENTATIVES TODAY!

The enclosed went to every Congressman today March 24th, 1953.

Perhaps you saw BARNEY BARUCH over TV, or heard him on radio telling Congress what to do?

Before every fresh holocaust BARNEY comes before Congress for legislation in preparation for harnessing and slaughtering "the people who are like an ass-slaves who are considered the property of the MASTER" - the Talmudists (Keth. 111a), as we are called.

Are we "asses", we "slaves" to be harnessed and slaughtered AGAIN without protest? Let CONGRESS KNOW THE SENTIMENT OF THE COUNTRY ON ANOTHER ZIONIST WAR FROM YOUR SECTION! It is unfair to assume they will not heed the real VOICE OF AMERICA unless we make some effort to be heard.

You and your neighbor's 19 year old boy is scheduled to be drafted for GLOBAL ZIONISM this next month in 41 states. Our blood and treasure are being strewn across the earth with little complaint from us "slaves who are considered the property of the MASTER."
